

Procurement and Contracts Sourcing Process

*The Procurement and Contracts Department is the only department granted authority to commit the company to expenditure with third party suppliers through purchase order (ERP approval) or by contract.